SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

(C) Information on file at this headquarters dated November 1948 indicates that Douwe RASMUSSEN, born 27 October 1904 in MOSCOW, was under investigation at that time for employment with the Communications Intelligence Service in MUNICH. During the investigation it was revealed that SUBJECT was a member of the NSDAP from 1940 to 1948, and was classed as a mitläufer (fellow traveler) by the Denazification Board in 1948. In addition, HE was tried by a German Court on 19 July 1946 on a charge of homosexuality, and found guilty. Further details concerning the charge and the results of the trial are not indicated. (Unvaluated) Information dated January 1950 indicates that SUBJECT was considered ineligible for employment with the Communications Intelligence Service. (B-2) Information dated October 1956 indicates that RASMUSSEN was the subject of a Central Registry check by the Security Office of the American Consulate in MUNICH. (B-2) Available records disclose no further pertinent information.
